Chapter 1 by Totally Olive

This is a sad story one of death and tragedy. This is a story of a girl who loved everyone but she had a flaw. A flaw that would one day kill her. Brain Cancer.

Chapter 2 by Deer Girl

This girls name was Iris Green. She lived a perfect life until she was diagnosed with Brain Cancer.

She had a lovely family, great friends and a handsome boyfriend who's name was Jason.

Chapter 3 by R

They had first discovered the tumor when she was fifteen. Iris didn't want to die - no one does - but she especially didn't want to die before she had even left high school.

Glioblastoma. She had looked up what it meant. She'd always been smart, good in school, good in life, but the words stared back at her, their meaning unknown.

There was only a 20% chance she'd make it to her twentieth birthday.

Chapter 4 by aubreyandfriends@gmail.com

She wasn't paying much attention in anything really.
She was so concentrated on cancer and what it was about.

Iris was scared. She didn't want to go she didn't want to leave her friends her family or her boyfriend.

Why was this happening to a healthy girl like her? She didn't understand it. She wanted to know why but no one knew why no one would tell her answers.

Iris started to feel depressed. What did she do to deserve this?
What did she do wrong? she went to the doctors every 3 weeks to see what was happening.

Chapter 5 by jaiiy

At night she lay in bed, just thinking. Thinking about death, life, her family. She cried. It physically hurt her heart that someday soon, she would have to leave all these wonderful people. That she would have to leave life itself. But something then, had risen in her. She couldn't waste this time on earth. Iris had a boyfriend, a family, a cat. And even though she was never the bravest student in her class, she felt a change rising in her.

She would fight.

Chapter 6 by GasperJasper

When she woke up the next morning, she tried hard to hide her expression. Her classmates started to give her gifts. Flowers, chocolate, and money was given to her.

Even her crush, Max knew about this. Iris went up to her, and held her in place. Max was stuck.

Eventually, Iris broke out a kiss on Max. She wanted him to love him before she died.

They went outside. They kissed again until they fell. Fireworks exploded and there was a party near the school.
